

Sebadoh, My Own Religion

Hey, I'm startin' to feel OK
I think I could make it through
I'm feelin' much smarter today
I think I'll be friends with you
Friend, I'm sorry if I don't talk
It seemed like there's nothing to say
Is it enough just to share some time
Before it all falls away?
I'm no one to stand and fall
Not satisfied with your respect
I'm digging you under today
And I'm laughing at your pact
Just scream if I cut too close
I'll only hold it back
