

Sebastian Bach, Falling Into You

Here I am, slippin' back in time
Starin' in your eyes like it's all the same
Look at you, you haven't changed at all
The devil's dj vu
Has lead me down and back into this deadly fall

You take me, break me
Build me up and then forsake me
Our love is my world
Then you cut me down with one word

Strung out, I'm through
Try to run but I'm falling into you
You're the devil's dj vu

Bring it on, bend my will again
Undress the story's end and make this heart believe
There's a light in the darkness of my mind
Hangin' by a thread, like a spider spinnin' out a brand new web

You take me, break me
Build me up and then forsake me
Our love is my world
Then you cut me down with one word

Then you cut me down with one word
Strung out, it's true
Try to run but I'm falling into you, yeah yeah

Think about me
Our love is your salvation
Taste my mind
Give in to all temptation
Embrace complete destruction
Wait wait wait wait wait wait

You take me, break me
Build me up and then forsake me
Our love is my world
Then you cut me down with one word

Strung out, I'm through
Try to run but I'm falling into you

You take me, break me
Build me up and then forsake me
Our love is my world
Then you cut me down with one word

Strung out, I'm through
Try to run but I'm falling into you
You're the devil's dj vu
