

Sebastian Bach, (Love Is) A Bitchslap

Rolling down the avenue
I've got my fist in the air
Checking out of the rat race
And I really don't care

I got a knock down drag it out fight on my mind
Attitude's a kick in the face
I'm just having a good time
Just having a good time

Don't ask what the truth is
And I won't tell you no lies
'Cause love can be a bitchslap, honey
A bleeding heart in disguise

Even in the stratosphere
Ain't always at night
I don't even know if
That's what I was hopin' to find

I got a knock down drag it out fight on my mind
Attitude's a kick in the face
Getting out of my mind
I'm getting it out of my mind

Don't ask what the truth is
And I won't tell you no lies
'Cause love can be a bitchslap, honey
A bleeding heart in disguise

Trying hard to push me
One step over the line
I got the weight of the world on my back
I'd leave it all behind

Don't ask what the truth is
And I won't tell you no lies
'Cause love can be a bitchslap, honey
A bleeding heart in disguise

Trying hard to fuck me one step over the line

I got the weight of the world on my back
I leave it all, I leave it all behind

Chew on that
