

Secret Discovery, Some Of This

today is a good day to remember I see the clouds are moving fast I know the world is changing every single day then I look back, look in your eyes and smile...

you want some of this, some of that you want it all and nothing less you are so young, you are too young to know... some of this, some of that nothing more and nothing less
you are so young, you are too young to know... the time

I know the day will come to tell you I know the time will come to explain I know you've got the right to know just who I am and I'll be there, always for you, I swear!

you want some of this...

look at me I'm here to come I've been waiting far too long all the words have to be spoken look at me I'm standing here to face the day that's coming near nothing more has to be broken

you want some of this...
