

Secrets In Stereo, Not today

Over my head, over my head
Lookin for a hand to pull me up
I hold my breath, hold my breath
If its the last thing that I do
I wont reach for you
Not today, not tomorrow
I dont want someone to follow
Out of here
Ill take the fear, Ill take the blame
No regrets, not today
Its mine to build or to break
I dont want someone to follow
I dont want someone to follow
Over my head, over my head
The sky is fallin, pourin down on me
Dont hold your breath, dont hold your breath
I dont wanna be rescued
I wont run to you
Not today, not tomorrow
I dont want someone to follow
Out of here
Ill take the fear, Ill take the blame
No regrets, not today
Its mine to build or to break
I dont want someone to follow
I dont want someone to follow
I hear the seconds ticking
I feel the tension build
The strings wont hold me down
They never will, they never will
I hear the seconds ticking
I feel the tension build
The strings wont hold me down
They never will, they never will, they never will
No regrets, not today
Its mine to build or to break
I dont want someone to follow
I dont want someone to follow
I hear the seconds ticking
I feel the tension build
The strings wont hold me down
They never will, they never will
