

Seeds, Fallin'

(Sky Saxon/Daryl Hooper/Jan Savage)

Lost in your dreams...

(I did it all for her, my flower child)

Lost in your dreams

Said the ride's so long and the nights so black

A thousand shadows can never look back

You're flying off toward an isle of dreams

And now you're lost, and lonely it seems

Said there's a dreammaker in every corner

Just waitin' to weave a web of sin

Said better watch yourself, little girl

I said better keep away from him

I said the rides so long and the night's so black

A thousand shadows can never turn back

CHORUS

I said, run, little girl just as fast as you can

Run like the wind

Said, run, little girl just as fast as you can

Run away from him ahhhhhhh

I lost the heart I had before

And now my spirit can't cross the door

Oh what can I do, I made a mistake

But know I know, I know it's too late

I said ah ah ahhh

I've tried so hard, now I'm lost again

I didn't listen to what they say

And now I'm losing, I've lost my way

The road so black and the night's so dark

A thousand shadows can never turn back

I said ah ah ahhh

The ride, the ride, the ride's so long

The night, the night, the night's so black

Ah ah ah child child child child child
