

Seether, Pig

Have you ever wanted to die when you were without your friends?
Havent you said goodbye to the one on who your life depends?
Could it be that I dont wanna save you anymore? Could it be that we dont have what it takes?
(Yeah)

Have you ever wished for fire to burn away your mind restraints?
Havent you been for hire or suffered those cheap complaints?
Could it be that I dont wanna save you anymore?
Could it be that we dont have what it takes?
Take it away cause I dont like this anymore
Take it away and throw it away

Have you ever wanted to die when you were without your friends?
Havent you said goodbye to the one on who your life depends?
Could it be that I dont wanna hurt you anymore? Could it be that we dont have what it takes?

Take it away cause I dont like this anymore
Take it away and throw it away
Take it away cause I dont like this anymore
Take it away and throw it away
