

Seigmen, The Modern End

Camera angles
Decadence of dying world
Matchsticks - long dark corridors
They got the urge to die young
Deepbluelettering

Carousels and fireworks
Ferris wheels are spinning
In the arc-lite city

Do they know they have slept for so long?
Do they know the taste of their tongue?
Do they know they're trapped?

Let's celebrate the modern end
Let the world begin again
Celebrate the renaissance man
