

Selah Sue, Time

Time will tell, you
The bad days will fade
Time will tell you
If your heart will stray

You ought to know
And leave it behind
But only without remorse
There will it be the right way
Cause you oughta know
That when you'll be smiling
You feel within this doubt
That what you feel is burning out

Time will tell you
That the darkness long gone around you
Time will heal you
With peace and silence

You ought to know
You're forever entwined
With all the stars above
Now will you keep the bad days?
Cause you ought to know
You're walking with guidance
Think of the fleeting [?]
That what you feel is dying out

Around you, around you
A dark hue
Around you, around you
A dark hue
Around you□
