

Selena, Cien Años (English Translation)

"One Hundred Years"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

You passed by my side with great indifference Your eyes didn't even turn towards me
I saw you without you seeing me
I talked to you without you hearing me
And all my bitterness choked inside me
It hurts, to my very core to think that you forgot me To know that I don't even deserve your contempt But anyway, you continue to be united with me
And if I live 100 years, 100 years I'll think of you.
