

Selena, Como Quisiera (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

It hurts my heart
To see you in the arms of another love How I wish, dear amor, that you and I were together
And how I wish, amor
to have you here with me forever
I cry and cry knowing that you and I will never, ever, ever be able to be together again
It hurts my heart
You left me for no reason I can't live without your love
And I want you to come back to me
And how I wish, amor
to have you here with me forever

*amor is a Spanish term of affection, not to be confused with the noun "love";
