

Selena Cross, Silence

At last I have clarity
It took a while, it took a long time
But now I can see
I learned to let go
It was the hardest lesson of all
But I gave you my love
In silence
Silence
There would come a time
In my life
When I'd face what was real
I turned a blind eye
I'd feed the lie
Too afraid to come clean
But I learned to let go
Although you would never know
That I gave you my love
In silence
Silence
Silence
Silence
But I learned to let go
It was the hardest lesson of all
Did you ever know?
I gave you my love
In silence
Silence
