

Selena, Dame Tu Amor (English Translation)

"Give Me Your Life"

-----
Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.
-----

Give me your love, I'm asking you please
If you love me, tell me with a kiss of love and of passion
I love you, and you're always on my mind
If you're not next to me, I die of sad loneliness
In my life, I never felt like this
But now, now that I have you here We're going to be together always living out the miracle that you're at my side
in my life
I never felt like this
But now, now that I have you here
You are the air, the moon, and the sun Promise me that you'll always be here by my side
in my life
I love you, and you're always on my mind
If you're not next to me, I die of sad loneliness
