

Selena, Enamorada De Ti (English Translation)

"In Love With You"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

I feel an emotion inside my heart
Only by hearing your voice, you relieve my depression
Without your love, I'm like the sun without its heat
If you're not here, everything is very sad and without color
I'm in love with you
Chained to your heart
I'm in love with you
You drive me crazy, crazy with passion
My whole life wraps itself in your warmth
By only seeing you, you make me so happy
Without your love, I'm a flower without its color
You give me all your love and there's no conditions
I'm in love with you
Chained to your heart
I'm in love with you
You drive me crazy, crazy with passion
You know that I love you and without you I'm desperate
You are my everything, and I'd die without you
You're my happiness every time I wake up
And I want to be by your side
