

Selena, Estoy Contigo (English Translation)

"I'm With You"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

I'm with you for an eternity There's nothing that can separate this love that I feel in my being that nobody will ever take away from me
And if one day you want to see me cry
You only have to say that you're leaving Yes, I'll cry, and I'll also scream if you scorn the love that I gave you But that's not going to happen Because I've settled (on a decision) that my love is for you And nothing could separate me from you
The love inside of me that I feel for you
