

Selena, No Debes Jugar (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

Baby*, that's enough already of your games
'Cause I'm not some toy Amigo, this isn't fair
'Cause I'm not here to serve you
You think it's easy to play with my love
But very soon, I'm going to put you in your place
You shouldn't play with my love
You shouldn't play with my affections
If you love me, or not, just tell me already
So that I can go on with my life
Baby, you know I love you
And as for me, I've given everything Amigo, I'm not a puppet that you move around whenever you want You think that everything depends on whether you say yes or no
But you what will you say when I tell you goodbye?
You shouldn't play with my love
You shouldn't play with my affections
If you love me, or not, just tell me already
So that I can go on with my life
