

Selena, Si Una Vez (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

I gave you all my love and more
And you don't even know what love is
I put myself at your feet
And only with contempt you paid me back
If once I said that I loved you, today I regret it
If once I said that I loved you,
I don't know what I was thinking
I must have been crazy
If once I said that I loved you,
and that for you I gave my life
If once I said that I loved you,
I won't do it again,
That mistake is a thing of the past
I know that one day you will return
And you will be sorry for everything
I put myself at your feet
And only with contempt you paid me back
