

Selena, Siempre Hace Frio (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

This heart, that still loves you
Is already dying, afternoon after afternoon Dying like the light of day
I can't go on anymore, I really need you Come back to me, soul of my soul*
My life* (mi vida)
Wherever are you,
Wherever are you?
Kill me heaven, swallow me earth
I want to die
if he doesn't come back Soon you'll be able to have the whole world
in your hands
All the blessings
and another love
better than mine
But you'll soon see that everything ends and upon seeing you alone
the way I feel today It's always cold
