

Selena, Vuelve A Mi (English Translation)

"Return to Me"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

Every time I see it rain it reminds me of the day you said goodbye And every drop of water that falls is like each tear that I cried for you And I wait for the day when you return to me It was raining that day when you told me goodbye
My tears, you didn't see them
They got mixed up with the rain
I don't know what happened with all the love that we had between us, and it just ended We swore to always love each other And today I'm left alone
Return to me, because one second is too much time without you It's so hard to live like that,
I don't know what to do
If you're not here, I'll die
Return to me,
because my days are so sad without you And now that you're not here, what shall I tell my heart that doesn't want to lose you,
Return to me
