

Selwyn, The Way Love's Suppose To Be

Yeah, the way that love's supposed to be, yeah.

Sometimes I know we fight, sometimes things don't seem right,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
And girl, I know it's hard, don't let things fall apart,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?

Always chilling with my boys, I never had time for you,
Now I'm thinking that I'm missing out on all the things we used to do.
Now I'm thinking that I'm all confused,
Coz everybody needs to love somebody, I really need to love your body.
You know I'm here for you, there's nothing I won't do,
Coz you're my everything, girl, you know.

Sometimes I know we fight, sometimes things don't seem right,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
And girl, I know it's hard, don't let things fall apart,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?

Oh I think you better hear me out, coz what I got to say to you,
Everybody has their ups and downs, maybe that ain't nothing new.
I need you with me, baby, ain't no doubt,
Everybody needs to love somebody, I really need to love your body.
You know I'm there for you, there's nothing I won't do,
Coz you're my everything, girl, you know.

Sometimes I know we fight, sometimes things don't seem right,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
And girl, I know it's hard, don't let things fall apart,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?

Sometimes I know we fight, sometimes things don't seem right,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
And girl, I know it's hard, don't let things fall apart,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?

Now show me what you're fronting, remember the night we first met and,
You need to know that I really, really love you so,
And I don't wanna leave your love, don't wanna let it go.
See I know we've had our shares of ups and downs,
In and outs, rounds and rounds, but you know I'm still here.
Doing everything for you, what you want me to,
Girl, don't you know I'm made for you, uh-huh.
You know I'm here for you, there's nothing I won't do,
Coz you're my everything, girl, you know.

Sometimes I know we fight, sometimes things don't seem right,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
And girl, I know it's hard, don't let things fall apart,
Isn't that the way love's supposed to be?
