

Semisonic, Girlfriend

Walking into parties on your own
It's getting old now
Twice around the room and out alone
It feels so cold now

And I'm probably showing up
Just about the time you leave

Girlfriend, girlfriend
Looking for a little bit of something sweet
Girlfriend, girlfriend
Wherever you are is where I'd like to be

Waking up alone and knowing how
I'm gonna spend the day
In cd racks and Java Jacks
The afternoon just slides away

And you're probably sitting near
With something you don't want to read

Girlfriend, girlfriend
Looking for a little bit of something sweet
Girlfriend, girlfriend
Trying to find a little bit of sympathy
I get the feeling you're a lot like me

I see Paris flights are cheap these days
But I know how it's gonna go
I'll be wearing out the same two phrases

I don't smoke
I'm here alone

Walking into parties on your own
It's getting old now
Twice around the room and out alone
It feels so cold now

Girlfriend, girlfriend
Looking for a little bit of something sweet
Girlfriend, girlfriend
Wherever you are is where I'd like to be

Girlfriend, girlfriend
Trying to find a little bit of sympathy
Girlfriend, girlfriend
Why do I get the feeling you're a lot like me
I get the feeling you're a lot like me
