

Send More Paramedics, Send More Paramedics

Cast into this outer dark
Blighted wasteland grey and stark
Cowering under this black sun
Shelterless, nowhere to run

Exiles from the light
From out of this deep we cry
But there is no reply

This is the place of wailing and the gnashing of teeth
Dimension of the damned where the waking dead are tortured with an endless grief
Zone of a sleepless torment that will find no relief
A desert of despair where unhallowed souls stumble choking with a thirst that will never cease

Bloodshot vision, brimstone curse
Doomed to wander this bleak earth
Wretched rejects, worthless slaves
Ripped untimely from our graves

Exiles from the light
From out of this deep we cry
But there is no reply

Grind your teeth

This is the place of wailing and the gnashing of teeth
Dimension of the damned where the waking dead are tortured with an endless grief
Endless abyss of abjection and the absence of light
A dungeon oubliette where demented shades are locked up in eternal night

Hellward bound
World without
End
