

Senses Fail, Fireworks At Dawn

&lt;strong&gt;Lyrics to Fireworks At Dawn&lt;/strong&gt;:

Fireworks at dawn

As I sip for assistance

This flask keeps me calm

It reflects back my bent image

Of someone who's lost

And getting older by the minute

Laugh lines are like growing scars

Someday they will be finished

I've got so many places that I want to see

And I've got so many faces that I want to be

So get on your feet

Wipe the dirt off and get with it

Destiny waits at your door

You move on because the past can't be your passion

So what if you did something wrong

Find someone who hasn't

I've got so many places that I want to see

And I've got so many faces that I want to be
