

Seo Taiji, October 4th

I dunno why, but these days that girl keeps floating on my mind
When I stop breathing, I bring you up in my head
In my eye, there is a hazy period of time
It was so short... all I have are memories of it
You've soaked my mind for so many years
And you make me reminiscence
Because you are not here,
You are even more precious to me
You like a fox..
While I fell asleep for a while
You whispered in my ear
You grieved, asking why I didnt hold onto you
You were so bright and clear to me, I couldnt tell you
Because you are not here,
You are even more precious to me
Because you are not here,
You are even more beautiful
