

September, Just An Illusion

My personality has just been negative for me,
It's never worked out,
It takes a day or two before I open up to you,
And I can't sell that,
So I've spent my days alone,
My heart is frozen to the bone,
But now I'm not afraid

So here I am, let me be just what you're looking for,
It's just an illusion,
That's how everybody likes it,
So here I am, let me be just what you're dreaming of,
It's just an illusion,
That's now everybody wants it,

What you see is nothing like the real me
Now, baby, what you feel is just a little make-believe

Don't say a word you mean,
It's all about the way you're seen,
Just nod you're sweet face,
Keep moving in between,
They say it's blue you know it's green,
Don't make a big case,
Man, I'd rather be a clone,
Than spend my lonely life alone,
I know we're all afraid,

So here I am, let me be just what you're looking for,
It's just an illusion,
That's how everybody likes it,
So here I am, let me be just what you're dreaming of,
It's just an illusion,
That's now everybody wants it,

What you see is nothing like the real me
Now, baby, what you feel is just a little make-believe

So here I am, let me be just what you're looking for,
I'm not afraid, not anymore,
I have a plan, let me be the one you can't ignore,
I'm not afraid

So here I am, let me be just what you're looking for,
It's just an illusion,
That's how everybody likes it,
So here I am, let me be just what you're dreaming of,
It's just an illusion,
That's now everybody wants it,

What you see is nothing like the real me
Now, baby, what you feel is just a little make-believe
