September When, Desert Life

So silently walking in the sand I try to máke a shadow with my hand I'm lost again in desert land And slowly the light begins to fade I wait another endless day Chorus: Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night & Desert life is give and take (desert night)). Th esun's always up there Desert life is give and take The sun's always up there And slowly the seasons start to change I seek the whole wide angle for rain But walk back to my cave again I can not recall where I came from So I just have to carry on Chorus
