

September When, Mama Won't Tell You No Lie

I know the word and what it's about
I've seen the banner
I've heard the shout
Now they got it spread around the world
The Christian community
That don't mean a shit to me
I don't want none of them to be heard
It's your life
Jesus is trouble
I don't know why
We still care about the guy
I'm fed up with the story about the cross
He was just a rebel soul
His heart was into rock'n'roll
He just wanted to be one of us
Chorus:
Look back
Be sad
Look ahead
Instead
Mama won't tell you no lie
The religion thing is embarrassing
History tells all to me
I see no reason to respect the Church
They're just sitting there with their hands tight
Wondering what's wrong or right
I don't think what they get is what they're worth
Chorus
