Sepultura, Activist

Our pulse to resist Moves our cultural resistance I'm living this life Inside a civil tribe demised Improve my old mind Breaking all rules absorbing what I may find

Our manner to protect Destroys what's left for protection
Believing in symbols
The church will fool our souls
Prove you my role
Acting against undesired control

Don't fear your left Don't trust your right Activist

Our way of seeing progress
Making us walk towards repression
Disturbing our peace
In the name of self defense
Being felt by all
Our violent taste for the humans fall
