Sepultura ft. Mike Patton, The Waste

If what you want is what you need
If what you want is what you need
Then what you need is really what you want
If what you want is what you need
Then what you need is really really what you want
If what you want is what you need
Then what you need is what you really really want
(2x)
I'm wasted (today, today) (2x)
If what you want is what you need
Then what you need is what you really really want
(2x)
If what you hunt is what you see
Then what you see is what you really wanna eat
If what you love is what you bleed
And what you bleed is what will really set you free
I'm wasted
And I keep falling over
With your head on my shoulder
I'm wasted
If what you want, is what you need
And what you need is what you really really want
If what you sum is what you breed
Then what you breed will have the place of your prestige
I'm wasted (2x)
I'm wasted
