Sepultura, R.I.P. (Rest In Pain)

Fast death, disenchanted by life Marked by envy and scorn Show to the world his mortal hate Die with regret There's no light and there's no air The rose's smell corrodes me A deep agony possesses me To be forgotten under a burial

Rest in pain Rest in pain Rest in pain

You wake up lying on wet ground Worms corrode your flesh Pick up your own eyes Watch your septic end To shout at someone and not to be heard The silence supports the paranoia To die crying, this is my fate The life I choose

Schizophrenia Paranoia Insane death Rest in pain
