

SERA, Pretty Face

And now you realize it's too late
Tryna put a spell on me
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face
And now you're tryna win a losing game
But I know you'll never change
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face

Yeah, she got a smile so contagious
Fendi and Prada are her favorite
Diamond rings and golden bracelets
All about that status, yeah
She told me I could be the one
But I don't think you're ever done
Your intentions are wrong
You just hit it and run, oh baby, oh baby

I don't, I don't believe it
Tryna mess with my feelings
Ooh, I told you so
We ain't ever gonna work
Gotta let me go

And now you realize it's too late
Tryna put a spell on me
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face
And now you're tryna win a losing game
But I know you'll never change
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face

Yeah, she know she got a pretty face, right
The type of girl to give you stage fright
But I'm more focused on the inside (Focused on the inside)
Na-na-na-na-na-na
You know she's all about that high life
She's got that swag but she's not my type
And on another note
She's got a lot of dudes polishing that sugarcoat

But I, I don't, I don't believe it
Tryna mess with my feelings (My feelings, girl)
Ooh, I told you so
We ain't ever gonna work
Gotta let me go

And now you realize it's too late
Tryna put a spell on me
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face
And now you're tryna win a losing game
But I know you'll never change
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face

You do it all for a little bit of clout
I don't think that's what life's about
You say you have it all
Louis V, Gucci bags, but no friends to call
Na-na-na-na
What goes up always gotta come down
We both know we would never work out

I told you so, ooh, gotta let me go

And now you realize it's too late
Tryna put a spell on me
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face
And now you're tryna win a losing game
But I know you'll never change
Thinking you can always get your way
With that pretty face
