

Serafin, Peaches From Spain

as youre a friend can i come and stay in your house on a beach in san tropez if i bring some wine and peaches from spain mmm oh my god your house is so full of pain you can ask me if you're insane you can you ask me if you're insane you are insane walls of water gushing over me when youre star-like burns are touching me in my coma you were a sound mmm can you tell me how my feet touch the ground? cos there's nothing like you around and theres nothing like you around, you were a sound
