

Serafin, Violently Hopefully

an illusion is mine
my idea of a life
when you drank jews blood
do i believe in god?
when the sun hits the sky
and the light hits my eye
jesus said to me
violently hopefully

when my love expires
it will be you who tires left your heart in the breeze you cant possibly see

and when i go
to this place you know
i'll begin to believe

when i find out why
why i have to die

jesus said to the girl
i am fond of the world
i am only a man
and i do what i can

when they think its a sin they just follow and grin when the come up to me
only follow a dream
