

Serenity, Oceans Of Ruby

We are the gods that you create We're unifying love and hate Your belief is tied to our existence Still you can't see how you disdain humanity devoting crimes to us, divine

(Chorus:)
Oceans of ruby
We never cried for pain
Lost in the dark sea
You sadly died in vain

How come you kill in our names and drown your enemies in flames expecting great reward for this madness Your life to come no afterworld forseen by some Your paradise illusive lies

Chorus

Repeat Chorus
