

Sergio Mendes, Nightlife

Fantasy hides in the daylight
Faces are tight and controlled
Nobody wants the exposure
Nobody dares to let go

Come five o'clock, what a difference
The magic is starting to slip
Full moon is on the horizon
Daytime is losing its grip

The nightlife
Nightlife seduces
Nightlife
Nightlife is ruthless
Nightlife
Brings a wild thing to life
Lose your soul
And find your passion
Waiting in the night

Shadows grow tall in the sunset
People you don't recognize
Call out your name and invite you
Charming you with hungry eyes

The nightlife
Nightlife excuses
Nightlife
Nightlife confuses
Nightlife
Brings a wild thing to life
Taste your sin
And find your pleasure
Waiting in the night

Make it last long as you can now
Cause lightning may not strike twice
Dreams are betrayed by the morning
When the heart turns cold as ice

The nightlife
Nightlife seduces
Nightlife
Nightlife is ruthless
Nightlife
Brings a wild thing to life
Lose your soul
And find your passion
Waiting in the night

Nightlife
Nightlife
Nightlife
Nightlife
Nightlife...
