Serial Joe, Angry

Told you things
I never meant to
Now it seems you think
I need you
Caught up in the moment
Between lust
And understanding
Read you like an open book
Promised you whatever it took
I only wanted just one night
Now I gotta make it right

CHORUS:

You're angry
I know I'm done
You're looking
Straight into me

Doesn't matter what I say now
Try to make you see it somehow
Never meant to lead you on
Lost my head and carried on
Careless words you heard me say
I said so I could have my way
I only wanted just one night
Now I gotta make it right

CHORUS:

You're angry
I know I'm done
You're looking
Straight into me
You're angry
I know I'm done
You're looking
Straight into me

Take a step back now
And look what I've done
Can't make it all just go away
When all is said and done
I'll be the lonely one

CHORUS:

You're angry
I know I'm done
You're looking
Straight into me
You're angry
I know I'm done
You're looking
Straight into me
