

Serial Joe, Dream Girl

Hey girl, are you out there
I can see you in my mind
You've been messin' with my head
Now I need to unwind
I saw you in my dream last night
I wanna sleep forever
Girl, you have got to see
That we belong together

Where can I find you
I just gotta know
This feelin' is amazing
Won't ever let it go

There you are again, I see
You walkin' down the street
If I run around the corner
You'll be there and we can meet
I knew that when I found you
My mind would blow a fuse
But no more sleepin' through my days
Together, we can't lose

Where can I find you
I just gotta know
This feelin' is amazing
Won't ever let it go
Now that I've found you
You've just gotta know
This feelin' is amazing
Won't ever let it go

I knew that when I found you
My mind would blow a fuse
But no more sleepin' through my days
Together, we can't lose

Where can I find you?
I just gotta know
This feelin' is amazing
Won't ever let it go
Now that I've found you
You've just gotta know
This feelin' is amazing
Won't ever let it go
