

Serial Joe, Girl Like You

I could tell you the things
You wanna hear
How your pretty blue eyes shine
How I want to hold you tight
But you'd see through my disguise
The sun will shine and
The moon will rise tonight
And everything will be alright,
Will be alright

CHORUS:

If you only knew
How much I'd do to be with you
If you only knew
How much I need a girl like you

I could make up stories
Fill your head with lies
I could do most anything
But I think you'd realize
That everything will be alright
Will be alright

CHORUS:

If you only knew
How much I'd do to be with you
If you only knew
How much I need a girl like you

BRIDGE

CHORUS OUT:

If you only knew
How much I'd do to be with you
If you only knew
How much I need a girl like you
