

Serial Joe, What I See

She walks around aimlessly in the night
Desperately searching - for what she thinks is right
Promises made... but always broken
Words as thoughts but never spoken
Life and times that could have been
And stories left untold

I can hear you cry
I can feel you sigh
Touched my soul today
Now kiss the pain goodbye

Sidesteps feelings that come her way
Thinking she can make it through another day
The fear of falling makes her shiver
Afraid to accept the feeling it gives her
If only she could see what I see
The fire that burns inside

I can hear you cry
I can feel you sigh
You touched my soul today
Now kiss the pain goodbye

BRIDGE

I can hear you cry
I can feel you sigh
You touched my soul today
Now kiss the pain goodbye

I can hear you cry
I can feel you sigh
You touched my soul today
Now kiss the pain goodbye

Now kiss the pain goodbye
Now kiss the pain goodbye
Now kiss the pain goodbye
