

Serra Eric, Drumming For You

Every morning I'm lonely
I've got nothing to live for
You 'n' I having a ride on a shooting star
Through the milky way... but There's no one to share my only dream
No one to smile up at me amazed
And I miss these moments, and I wish for your presence
When I am far away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
The planet is rolling 4 U 'n' me Strolling up and down the city
No more reason than before
You 'n' I having a ride in a bumper car
On the public way... but There's no one to scan the gleam in my eyes
No one to picture the copper's gape
And I miss these moments, and I wish for your presence When I am far away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
The night brings back a reality
No one will wake even if I snore
Aerobatic glide and big dipper
I can forget it right away...
And I miss these moments, and I wish for your presence
When I am far away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
The planet is rolling 4 U 'n' me
Drummin' the love rhythm
Rollin' on to the love rhythm
Drummin' the love rhythm
Rollin' on to the love rhythm
When I am far away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
When I am far away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
Away from you
Dreaming about you
My heart is still beating 4 U
Drumming 4 U
