

Sesame Street, Five Purple Konkers

Five purple konkers
Sittin' on the shore
One swam away, and then there were four

Four purple konkers
Sitting in a tree (chomp!)
One flew away, and then there were three

Three purple konkers
Playing in some glue
One got stuck, and then there were two

Two purple konkers

Living happily
Thought they'd get married
And then there were... three?

(honk) (honk)

Three purple... no...
Two purple konkers and one yellow honker
Living in harmony
Loving one another for they are family (honk!)
