

Sesame Street, Laying Eggs Around The Clock

Little Jerry: Well I ate my breakfast
And I cleaned my plate
Man, those eggs really tasted great
Jumped from the table
And I ran real quick

A Monotone: To thank those souped-up, cooped-up chicks

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: Laying eggs

Hens: Braaack! Braaack!

Little Jerry: Around the clock

Well, they're warm and cozy
Nesting out of the rain
Cluckin' and a'peckin'
Eating healthy grain
But how do those eggs get rolled into town?

A Monotone: Well, bless my soul, here's Farmer Brown

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: Laying eggs

Hens: Braaack! Braaack!

Little Jerry: Around the clock

Farmer Brown: Well, we take these eggs
And we box 'em in twelve
And truck those boxes to the grocery shelves
Folks bring 'em home
And they love 'em a lot

Mrs. Brown: And we're real proud of the eggs they bought

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: The hens go

Hens: Braaack!

Little Jerry: Laying eggs

Hens: Braaack! Braaack!

Little Jerry: Around the clock

Spoken:

Little Jerry: That's why I love the music business, you meet so many great chicks!
