

Sesame Street, Run, Run

Run, run, everybody run.
Come run with me, and we'll have fun.
Hey, run, run, everybody run.
Five, four, three, two, one.
Let's run.

You can run in the city.
You can run in the park.
You can run in the morning.
You can run in the dark.
You can run down hills on the beach in the sun.
It really doesn't matter if you open up and run.

Hey, run, run, everybody run.
Come run with me, and we'll have fun.
Hey, run, run, everybody run.

Five, four, three, two, one.
Let's run.

Well, you can run in the grass.
You can run in the street.
All you've got to do is put wings on your feet.
So hold my hand, and what do you know?
Just take a deep breath and ready, set, go.

Hey, run, run, everybody run.
Come run with me and we'll have fun.
Run, run, everybody run.
Five, four, three, two, one.
Let's run. Let's run. Let's run.....
