

Sesame Street, The Seven Tiny Little Mice

In a tall boot that was very nice
Lived seven tiny little mice
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven

At seven o'clock, they were all fed
With strawberry jelly on a slice of bread
On seven slices of whole-wheat bread
One at a time, the jam was spread
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven

And after dinner, they cleaned their rooms
These seven mice, with their seven brooms
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven

Then into bed and turn out the light
And the seven mice all said "Good night!"
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven
