

Sesame Street, Things That I Already Know

I'm getting pretty big, I'm not a baby anymore
Last summer I could hardly reach the doorknob on the door
And someone had to lift me up and show me what to do But now I turn it by myself and push and walk right through oooh oooh woh oh woh hmm hmm hmm hmm

And there are other things I do I couldn't do before Like help my momma fold the clothes and sweep the kitchen floor
And I can dress alone and do the buttons by myself
And lace my shoes and get things down when they are on the shelf
I make the elevator move, I track it up and down

And I can make a big bus stop and let us off downtown
oooh oooh woh oh woh hmm hmm hmm hmm

I give the dog his supper and pour milk for the cat
Throw Ma a ball I almost can hit it with a bat
It's not so easy and I guess I have a way to go
But there are quite a lot of things that I already know
oooh oooh woh oh woh hmm hmm hmm hmm
