

Set Your Goals, Flight Of The Navigator

Twelve hour drives are nothing when I'm with all of you
Then it's a road that calls my name
So come on, come on, punch it, I can't wait much longer
Living in this moment I know, distanced friends will be closer tomorrow
And when the lights go down, I swear I'll look for your eyes
You're singing every word you know we're here because of you!

So come on, come on, punch it, can't wait much longer
Living in this moment I know distanced friends will be closer tomorrow
Just make use with what you're given
Give it up because I'll never listen
This is all, all that I've dreamt of reasons why I went to face the day
And now we go! GO!

And every night it makes me feel so alive
Can only grow up from here so keep me here another year
Cause this is all, all that I dreamt of reasons that I went to face the day
And I'll live to face the day!
We'll go through life because it never seemed
Your life is not what's right for me
We'll pace the roads, and we'll paint the skies
Our path is plagued with discontent good byes
We're striking the days so we can burn the nights
And I'll never look back on what I've left behind
