

Set Your Goals, Sharptooth

10 o' clock on Monday night, and I'm still in the past
Feelings change, and people fade, but the memories, they last
I missed the chance, slipped through my hands, I wish I could go back

I'd change it all. The words I'd say, reflecting back on yesterday

But now I've turned the tables and I've had time to make amends and find my friends
Oh, I've made mistakes, I know this. But I can't change the past
And I can't change you

10 o' clock on Monday night, and I'm still in the past
Feelings change, and people fade, but the memories, they last Can't change you! I'm stuck in the past!
