

Sethian, Blood Calling

Bringer of light

The Faustian search, envision my primeval self

Sail the vast ocean of lucid darkened eyes

Cast asunder, melting my soul

On this sea of million dreams

Through this first flower

Im touching the boundaries of evolution itself

Blood calling

Blinded by the light

See beyond the oceans of time

Blood calling

Blinded by the light

Find a path of altered states of life

Search Promethean

Endless quest, to touch an angel of light

Take my soul but give me knowledge at any cost

Torn apart Ill find the way

A little death to soothe my soul

Way to realisation

Through obliteration of this mortal coil
