Seven And The Sun, Don't Ask Me Why

Don't ask me why Don't ask me to explain I will not try I'm who I am That's all you need to know So let it go

I will not change for you or anyone at all I'm who I am I'm all I ever need to know And you know I'll never be afraid

Don't ask me why Don't ask me to pretend I will not try There's more to me Then you will ever know or ever see

I will not change, no I will never compromise I'm who I am I'm all I ever need to be So let go or turn and walk away

What we are
What we are
We're deeper than the sea
Higher than the stars
The gods we long to be

What we are
What we are
We're beautiful you see
Brighter then the sun
We're all we need to be
