

Seven Channels, Submarine Dream

She's tired of breaking Nothing's left for taking Gone away are her dreams
Torn at the seams

She's like a submarine dream
as she dives and fades away from me (x2)

She's buried in all the fear and pain that makes her crawl the silence she wears breaks my heart mask will soon fall apart

She's like a submarine dream
as she dives and fades away from me
(x2)

She'll bend until she breaks as the night turns into day I'm screaming
she starts to fade
that there's a better way

She's like a submarine dream
as she dives and fades away from me
(x2)
Fades away from me
(x9)
